

CREATE CITIZENS

8 ways to develop engaged, civil, informed, educated, & competent citizens

START SOONER

this is a K-12 thing, not just a senior government class thing.

CROSS-CURRICULAR

it's more than social studies. ELA & science are perfect for developing citizenship skills.

SIMULATIONS

Use sims & role playing to model appropriate behavior. Try this Google Doc: goo.gl/tKR7bR

PERSONAL PD

do some reading for yourself - both print and digital.

DON'T AVOID CONTROVERSY

teach kids to embrace differences.

USE SHEG

Stanford History Education Group has amazing resources: sheg.stanford.edu

EXPLORE ONLINE TOOLS

- One and All Initiative: goo.gl/KUYXTc
- Educating for Democracy in the Digital Age: eddaoakland.org

LOCAL GROUPS

partner in the community with local and state organizations.

GET MORE DETAILS:

goo.gl/h4ujZt

Glenn Wiebe
glennwiebe.org
@glennw98

 ESSDACK
essdack.org
@essdack